mess attendants, a nurreer was committed on the United States cruiser Boston this morning, and James A. Cooper is now in jail here charged with shooting A. Dorsett to death. Before the men arose Dorsett it is said, began magging Cooper, who is a small man, and the trouble was renewed when the men went to the mess-room to prepare breakfast.

Lieut Miller, executive officer of the ship, hearing a disturbance, entered the room, where he saw Cooper bending over Dorsett, who was lying on the floor. Lieut Miller thought Cooper had a knife in one hand and hastened to the pair. He was too late, however, for Cooper quickly fired three bullets into Dorsett, who died in a few minutes.

Cooper was at once placed in irons and brought here, as the case is a civil one, the Boston being at anchor.

Cooper says he acted in self-defense, as he thought Dorsett was about to attack him with a razor. After the first quarrel Cooper took a revolver from the room of an officer.

LAW DEFIER ADMITS PERJURY

Joseph F. Smith Has New Revelation.

Startling Declaration Made By Head of the Church.

Purposely Prevaricated in His Testimony Before Committee of Senate of the United States.

President Joseph F. Smith declared in the Tabernacle yesterday, in the several important revelations What Revelations Were.

These important revelations were, h leclared, namely, that he had done the boy, that Brigham Young, John Taylor President Smith then appealed to the not hold his position by divine right.

Defended by Apostles.

Previous to President Smith's speech, Apostle Charles W. Penrose and Apostle Francis M. Lyman spoke at some length in defense of President Smith as a prophet and a man, and each defined at some length the meaning of revelation. It was said to mean that which was not known before, as inventions, discoveries, and that a manmay have a revelation without seeing God or an angel. They declared that it was false that President Joseph Smith had never received a revelation. That he had always guided the church by revelation. Some time was spent in condemning those "ungodly, anti-Christ apostates" who had been excommunicated. Both Speeches Appealing.

Both speeches were appealing throughout, as was also President Smith's, and rivaled the varied arguments and delivery of Mark Antony's speech over the body of Caesar. The congregation was unusually attentive. following the speakers with breathless interest, all seeming to realize that the occasion was a remarkable one in the history of the church.

Eulogized Each Other.

One of the most interesting features of the service was that both Apostle Lyman and Apostle Penrose spoke at length on the goodness of President Smith, who, as soon as he had addressed the congregation, began a eulogy on the goodness of Apostles

Penrose and Lyman. Say His Lying Was Strategy.

These testimonies as to the goodness of each other seemed to be inserted to impress the congregation with the authenticity of the testimony borne by all three, that Joseph Smith is a prophet and has received revelation in this day and age; that he is at present guiding the church by this revelation, and that his testimony at Washington
